2016 – 2017

Intensive Chinese Program

Donghua University (DHU) in Shanghai was founded in 1951 and approved as the state-key university in 1980. DHU is one of the 75 universities under the direct management of the Ministry of Education of China. As early as 1954, DHU commenced to accept the international students who were among the first group of overseas students enrolled by Chinese universities. International Cultural Exchange School (ICES) offers diverse non-degree language programs to meet various demands. Over 2500 international students study at DHU each year not only improved the language proficiency but got to know the Chinese culture and society as well.

Teaching Objectives

Aim to help those with little Chinese language knowledge and skills achieve the following goals in around 10 months:

- Lay a solid foundation in basic knowledge of Chinese and gain intermediate comprehensive abilities in listening, speaking, reading and writing.
- Reach the language entry requirements of Chinese-instructed undergraduate or graduate programs at Donghua University (HSK 4 above 210 scores, or HSK 5 above 180 scores).

Program Features

- Diverse Teaching Method: The minimum size of each class is 8 students and the average is about 15. Morning classes will focus on the training of listening, speaking, reading and writing. Language practices will be held in the afternoon, such as customized training, listening and speaking practice in the language lab, language excursions and cultural experience.
- Periodic Review: Periodic test will be held every two to four weeks to strengthen the learned knowledge. Students who fail to pass the tests twice continuously will be withdrawn from the Intensive Chinese Program and transferred to the full-time General Chinese Program A.
- HSK Tutorial: HSK tutorial, focusing on improving students’ HSK examination techniques.
- Awards: Students who perform well both academically and daily will have the chance to gain the “Excellent Student Award” or “Progress Award” and win the corresponding prize. Excellent students can also be recommended when applying for further degree study or scholarships.
